NEWS RELEASE

Beverly Hills Police Investigate “Home Invasion” Robbery

On Tuesday, September 23, 2008, at approximately 10:34 pm, Beverly Hills Police Officers responded to a radio call of an armed “Home Invasion” robbery in the 9900 block of Sunset Boulevard. Officers arrived within minutes to conduct an initial investigation.

Upon contact with the residents/victims, they were escorted off the property by officers to a secure location while the officers continued their investigation. The initial investigation revealed that the suspect fled the location prior to police arrival.

The unknown male suspect fled the location in the victim’s vehicle. The vehicle, a Silver Mercedes Benz, was recovered several hours later by a Beverly Hills patrol officer a few miles from the crime scene. Detectives and crime scene investigators are conducting a follow-up investigation on the victim’s vehicle.

This is an on-going criminal investigation and no further information is available at this time.
