On October 5, 2009, at approximately 2:00 pm, actress Nicole Richie was involved in a traffic accident in the 9400 block of Wilshire Boulevard. Richie was driving a dark colored Land Rover when she was rear-ended by an unlicensed driver in a blue Jeep Cherokee. Richie complained of pain and stated that she will seek her own medical attention. Both vehicles sustained moderate damages.

The driver of the Jeep, Eduardo Arrivebene, 29, was arrested for driving without a license and booked at the Beverly Hills Police Department. It was determined that the driver of the Jeep was a freelance photographer. Accident investigators are currently investigating the collision.
