Beverly Hills Mayor Jimmy Delshad Supports Civility Accord at the U.S. Conference of Mayors

Beverly Hills, CA – Beverly Hills Mayor Jimmy Delshad joined the nation’s Mayors in signing a civility accord at the recent United States Conference of Mayors in Washington, D.C. The intent of the accord is to encourage elected leaders to promote a civil and respectful environment for political discourse.

“Local government is the first point of contact for many citizens. We are in a unique position to have a positive impact on our immediate communities,” stated Mayor Jimmy Delshad. The City of Beverly Hills through its Human Relations Commission has already established a civility statement encouraging candidates and community members to teach positive civic behavior through example.

The United States Conference of Mayors is a non-partisan organization comprised of cities with a population of 30,000 or more. Mayors from across America are invited as a way to build a stronger relationship between local and federal government.
