Beverly Hills Police Arrest Burglary Suspect

On Monday morning at approximately 3:18 a.m. a young girl was awoken by an intruder opening her bedroom sliding glass door. When the suspect became aware of the girl's presence he fled the location.

Beverly Hills police officers responded to the area and began looking for the fleeing suspect. During the next few hours, BHPD officers responded to a number of alarm activations in the area and located two additional attempt burglaries. Officers also located and impounded a suspicious vehicle parked in the area which they believed was the suspect's car. The initial burglary took place in the 800 Blk of Cord Circle; the two attempted burglaries occurred in the 800 Blk of Loma Vista and the 400 Blk of Doheny Rd.

Immediate follow-up by Beverly Hills Police Detectives led to the arrest of Jason Morgan, age 30, a resident of Los Angeles. Morgan was arrested on suspicion of residential burglary and attempt residential burglary.
